Howsoever, I'VE MADE the required changes, till clarification, just to avoid buggy / unexpected behavior (support functioning not as specified / expected).

Lots of love,
Actin Uranium Staff

Hi,

> The notice will not be published in our public repository until the 24-hour window has expired.

are we talking about different policies? I'm following this one: https://help.github.com/en/github/site-policy/dmca-takedown-policy#a-how-does-this-actually-work, step 2. The 24-hour window comes with steps 3 and 4, meaning to me: after step 2. Am I missing something?

Hello,

Thanks for your reply. GitHub is not in a position to offer legal advice or make legal determinations regarding copyright claims. Per our previous message, we are giving you 24 hours to make the changes requested in the notice. If the changes are not made within 24 hours time, we will need to disable the repository in accordance with our policy.

As you seem to already be aware, if you believe your content on GitHub was mistakenly disabled by a DMCA takedown request, you have the right to contest the takedown by submitting a counter notice.

https://help.github.com/articles/guide-to-submitting-a-dmca-counter-notice/

Please let me know if you have any other questions.

Thanks,
GitHub Staff

Hi Actin Uranium,

I'm contacting you on behalf of GitHub because we've received a DMCA takedown notice regarding the following content:

https://github.com/235u/proposals/blob/master/OutlookSynchronisation/Specification.pdf

We're giving you 24 hours to make the changes identified in the following notice:

https://github.zendesk.com/attachments/token/Q5ms5qNplu6397Isl3Q4e9FoS/?name=2019-12-10-aliston.rtf

If you need to remove specific content from your repository, simply making the repository private or deleting it via a commit won't resolve the alleged infringement. Instead, you must follow these instructions to remove the content from your repository's history, even if you don't think it's sensitive:

https://help.github.com/articles/remove-sensitive-data

Once you've made changes, please reply to this message and let us know. If you don't tell us that you've made changes within the next 24 hours, we'll need to disable the entire repository according to our GitHub DMCA Takedown Policy:

https://help.github.com/articles/dmca-takedown-policy/

If you believe your content on GitHub was mistakenly disabled by a DMCA takedown request, you have the right to contest the takedown by submitting a counter notice, as described in our DMCA Takedown Policy.

PLEASE NOTE: It is important that you reply to this message within 24 hours to tell us whether you've made changes. If you do not, the repository will be disabled.
